Brown accepts position

Michele Charles
Editor-in-Chief

Dr. Joe Anna Hibler's induction as the new SWOSU president will leave her vice presidential position open for Dr. Bob Brown to assume beginning July 1.

Brown's professional career includes service of 11 years at SWOSU, although not consecutively. Brown first came to SWOSU in 1967 as dean of men until he left in 1970 to work at the University of Oklahoma. In 1979 Brown came back to SWOSU and has been the Dean of Graduate School since then.

Brown foresees a large turnover in faculty due to retirement over the next 10 years as one of the challenges facing him.

"We have faculty who have been the heart of the university for many years who are approaching retirement. In the next 10 years we're looking at a significant loss of faculty who have been the backbone of this institution," Brown said. Brown continued, saying that the main concern for this involves replacing the present quality of retiring faculty, with other quality faculty.

"The important thing in the university is the interaction between students and faculty. That's where it happens. My job will be to help the faculty provide the learning opportunities and challenges that will allow and cause the students to learn. If we don't succeed in that then we have failed our mission," Brown said.

Brown stressed the importance of today's education. "We have to look at the kinds of skills students have—reading, writing, mathematics, computer literacy, research skills, thinking processes."

Brown expressed a concern for making sure students receive the best education for these and other necessary skills from SWOSU faculty.

Other projects Brown has scheduled to work on include automation of the Al Harris Library and an interactive video system to connect classes to and from the Weatherford and Sayre campuses.

Director appointed Summer graduation nears

Bob Klaassen

Among changes in administration, SWOSU has a new Director of Admissions.

Effective June 5, Bob Klaassen, Director of Admissions, became Director of Admissions and Registrar. Klaassen has reorganized the current office assignments, including the reclassification of his former professional staff position into two clerical positions.

Summer graduates who participated in Spring convocation, and others who will complete their degree requirements in July and wish to receive a summer diploma, must be sure their applications to graduate are in order.

If your name is not listed here, an application to graduate at the end of the summer term has not been received. Even if you have applied, you should check this list carefully to see that your name is spelled exactly as you want it to appear on your diploma and that you are listed with the correct degree.

DEADLINE TO APPLY FOR SUMMER GRADUATION IS JUNE 29, 1990.

(These persons have applied as of May 31, 1990.)

Assistantships available

The Department of Elementary/Special Education at SWOSU, is taking applications for two graduate assistant positions beginning in the Fall 1990 semester.

Deadline to apply for the positions is Friday, June 29. Complete application including letter, resume and references should be postmarked no later than this date and sent to Dr. Bill David, Department of Elementary/Special Education, SWOSU, 100 Campus Drive, Weatherford, OK 73096.

The primary duties for the project graduate assistant are to assist in the monitoring and awarding of student stipends for each semester and assist in project budgeting, ordering materials and supplies, practicum coordination, module development and general project-related duties.

The primary duties of the general program graduate assistant are to assist in monitoring the school's special education preschool and to develop modules in communicating with parents, communicating with regular classroom teachers, behavior management and Native American education and practicum.

Compensation for both positions includes full tuition and a stipend each semester. Assistants work at least 20 hours per week.

For more information, contact David at (405) 774-3144 or write him at the above address.

Students make 1990 honor roll

SWOSU has announced both the President's and Dean's Honor Rolls for the 1990 Spring semester.

A grade of "A" in 15 semester hours of undergraduate work taken during that time results in the students being named to the President's List. There are 106 students that have accomplished this.

There were 581 students on the Dean's List after completing 15 semester hours with a grade point of 3.0, "B" or higher, with no grade lower than a "C"

Named to the Spring semester lists were:

The Southwestern is the student newspaper of Southwestern Oklahoma State University. It is published every Wednesday during the fall and spring semesters, except during holidays and finals week, and biweekly during the summer semester by the Southwestern Publishing Co., University Campus, Weatherford, Okla., 73096.

The Southwestern encourages comment from the student body, faculty, and administration in the form of letters to the editor. All letters should include a name and phone number (or extension), however the name may be withheld on request. The phone number will not be printed, but it will allow us to contact the writer should the need arise. Letters should be sent or brought to The Southwestern, Room 117, Sci-

Photojournalism gives students experience

Beverly Stiner
Staff Writer

The horses at the track weren't the only ones off and running this past weekend at Remington Park. Eleven Southwestern students enrolled in Bettie Ainsworth's photojournalism seminar had their lenses focused, f-stops set, and camera straps adjusted.

Along with visting Remington Park, the students attended the 4th annual Red Earth Festival held at the Myraid in Oklahoma City. These particular activities were selected so that the student photographers would have a greater amount of subject matter to choose from.

The class also had the privilege of visiting the Oklahoma Today magazine. The Discover Oklahoma slide show was presented and narrated by a professional photographer. Students were also given the chance to ask questions on magazine production procedures.

Although the trips were a plus, the students voiced appreciation for the professional and enthusiastic instruction by Michael McLean. McLean works as a free-lance photographer based in Dallas. His past work experience includes the position of staff photographer on many small newspapers, The Dallas Times Herald, where he worked for four

While in the classroom, slide shows were presented containing work by McLean and many other accomplished photographers. All students were provided with the Photojournalists Survival Guide written by McLean, containing useful information dealing with feature photography.

McLean admits "I get real enthusiastic when I see a student recognize their own abilities as a photographer."

Classroom participation was high and students had the opportunity to learn tricks of the trade from a professional.

CARAMIA

Professional pianist performs

As part of a national piano camp held on campus recently, internationally-famed jazz pianist Tony Caramia presented an evening lecture-recital.

Caramia, associate professor of music at the University of Illinois, is one of the most active jazz keyboard artists on the current musical scene.

His highly acclaimed lecture-recitals, which trace the development of jazz piano from the Cakewalk to the present, have been heard throughout the United States and abroad. In addition to his jazz performances, Caramia has been active as a classical pianist, presenting numerous solo and ensemble programs.

Our First Year at SWOSU

August to May we spent our college days

*Bam! they were gone like that!
gone so fast it knocked us flat!*

Now we're facing summer work-work-work, what a bummer.

*We had a good time while we were here
Full of laughter, gossip and some fear.*

*Of losing our boyfriends or failing
a test,
It seemed we never had time to rest.*

*KXY with Dave & Dan got us out of bed,
with droopy hair and eyes of red.*

OKC was sometimes where we were at Chili's, Olive Garden, and Bennigan's to make us fat!

*With Richard in the Air Force and Jamie out of town,
We both wore almost a constant frown.*

*All in all it was a good year
We will face the next one with open arms and good cheers.*

*Being roomies for the second time
We know it will work out absolutely fine,
Cuz we're the class of '89.*

tional Finals Rodeo on June 10-16 in Bozeman, Montana. SWOSU advanced both its men's and women's teams to the 1990 nationals by finishing in the top two of the Central Plains Regional, which is comprised of schools in Oklahoma and Kansas. SWOSU's women won the CPR championship title for the seventh straight year, while the men took second place this year behind Ft. Scott, Kan.

The women's team was a powerful force in the CPR this season as they won seven of 10 rodeos. The SWOSU women, winners of the 1988 national championship banner and the 1989 national champion runner-up title, should once again be a contender for the national crown in Bozeman.

Representing SWOSU will be women's team members Lesa Arnold-Morrison, Pryor; Stace Baber, Devol; Jackie Barnard, Leede; Jami Massey, Lookeba; and Kim Stamps, Norman.

Head coach Don Mitchell, who is the only coach SWOSU has had since the program started in 1968, said barrel racing should be a strong event for the women. All five squad members will be competing in barrels.

Morrison will also be participating in breakaway racing while Barnard, Massey and Stamps will also be competing in breakaway and goat tying.

As for the SWOSU men, Mitchell said his cowboys should be competitive for individual titles, but a bid for a team title is unlikely. SWOSU will only have 11 entries this year compared to a usual 20 or more entries in years past.

Steer wrestling, anchored by CPR regional title winner Clyde Himes, is a strong event for SWOSU. Another strength is in the bareback riding event.

Representing the SWOSU men at the College National Finals Rodeo will be Phil Clifton, Clinton; Dee Cook, Carnegie; J.D. Crouse, Valentine, Neb.; Ed Dufurrena, Denio, Nevada; Clyde Himes, Beulah, Colo.; Scot Quick, Cheraw, Colo.; and Shawn Wright, Canadian, Texas.

Quick, Clifton, Crouse and Himes will be competing in steer wrestling, and Crouse and Himes will also be participating in calf roping. Dufurrena will ride in both bareback and broncs, while Cook will compete in team roping and calf roping. Wright will be competing in bareback.

This will be Mitchell's 16th trip to the College National Finals Rodeo. He has coached 17 individual national champions and two national championship teams. His assistant is George Howard.

Bromert receives stipend to Dartmouth

Dr. Roger Bromert, faculty member in the social sciences department, was awarded a stipend and is attending a national endowment for the humanities summer seminar on June 10 - Aug. 10 at Dartmouth College in Hanover, New Hampshire.

Twelve scholars were selected to attend the seminar which is titled "Reconstructing America's Civil Imagination, 1845-1900."

The seminar is just one of several offered for college teachers from across the United States by the National Endowment for the Humanities Division of Fellowships and Seminars. The seminars provide college teachers, independent scholars and other scholars such as archivists, curators, editors and librarians with a unique opportunity for advanced study or research in their own fields or in fields related to their interests.

Bromert's seminar, directed by Donald E. Pease of Dartmouth College, explores the effects of the Civil War and Reconstruction on literary representations of shared public life. The appearance of Harriet Beecher Stowe's "Uncle Tom's Cabin" eight years before the Civil War affirmed a common cultural assumption that American literature should enliven the great public debates of the time.
